507 Plum Street Syracuse, NY

Office

A prime urban location with the convenience and feel of a suburban office park, 507 Plum Street is located in the revitalized Franklin Square District of Syracuse. Just blocks from the intersection of Interstates 81 and 690, this building offers ample free parking, and is surrounded by tree-lined streets, luxury loft apartments, restaurants and walking paths stretching from Armory Square to Destiny USA.

This 3-story, Class A building was constructed in 1991 and designed to complement the historic architecture in the area while maintaining modern amenities.

This property offers businesses an opportunity to join some of Central New York's premier companies who have rediscovered suburban convenience in an urban location.
